PUBLIC COMMENT: Joel Laverty a resident of Grant Township who lives near where a new industrial size sawmill is coming in and causing a lot of dust, and heavy traffic with sand mounds being moved. Joel inquired what types of ordinances the Township has in place. The Township does have a couple of ordinances, but none that are for noise. Supervisor John Lake did mention that a noise ordinance was brought in front of the residents of the Township in the past and it did not pass on the ballot. A new petition can be started and if enough support is obtained then it can be re considered and put in front of the residents to vote on.
